

Greetings from the University of California, Davis School of Law! For almost 30 years, our International Law Programs have provided thousands of legal professionals worldwide with knowledge and skills to succeed in a global environment.

Our One-Year LL.M. Degree Program, Two-Year Advanced LL.M., and Spring Start Options

Our full-time one-year Master of Laws (LL.M.) Program provides international legal professionals with a superior educational and personal experience. Our LL.M. program is shaped to meet your individual needs. Participate in our general LL.M. curriculum or specialize in concentrations such as Business Law, Private and Public International Law, International Business and Dispute Resolution, Criminal Law and Procedure, Intellectual Property, Environmental Law, Human Rights and many others from the broad curriculum. We also offer a two-year Advanced LL.M. and a Spring Start option.

Our 2018 Summer Programs

- Orientation in U.S.A. Law (July 8–August 4, 2018)
- English for Legal Professionals (June 24–July 7, 2018)
- Structuring International Joint Ventures (August 5–18, 2018)
- Licensing Academy in Intellectual Property and Technology Transfer (June 17–June 30, 2018)
- Specialized One-Week Intensive Seminars in Securities, Private International Law, International Tax and International Transactions Involving the United States (Complete in two summers; this year, courses run July 8–August 4, 2018)

Please contact us at internationallaw@ucdavis.edu or visit law.ucdavis.edu/go/international for the latest information. Join us on social media by “liking us” on Facebook

(facebook.com/ucdavislawinternational), “Following us” on Twitter (twitter.com/UCDavisLawIntl) and Weibo (weibo.com/ucdavislaw), and “Subscribing” to our WeChat page (UCDavisSchoolofLaw).

Best wishes,

Beth Greenwood, Associate Dean
International Programs, UC Davis School of Law

Enclosure

187112